

Customer Charter

Our Commitment To You

Integrity & Honesty

We operate fair and honest terms of business and ethical recruitment practices. Our consultants always act with the utmost integrity and honesty.

Professionalism

Thorpe Molloy Recruitment consultants are market specialists in their field, holding relevant and current professional knowledge. We are committed to the continual professional development of our team.

Responsiveness

We won't waste your time.

Personal Service

You can expect us to get personal! To ensure the right candidate "fit" we develop an understanding for each client's business and each candidate's strengths.

Commitment

We deliver 100% effort to every job, irrelevant of the level of the position or the size of the business. Our consultants have a passion for recruitment and the pride in their work shines through.

Communication

We listen to your needs. Our responses are timely and clear, delivered in a friendly and supportive manner.

Innovative Business Practice

We are pro-active, creative and innovative - determined to deliver the best solution for our clients and candidates.

Corporate Social Responsibility

We feel strongly about our ability to contribute to the local community.